

The journey of the people of Israel From Egypt to Promised Land:

Examples of basic needs:

Water needed is about 3,000,000 liters a day if each drank 1 liter / day. It makes 125,000 liters an hour or 2,000 liters / min. Calculated 24 hours per day!

If each one ate one loaf of bread a day, every hour needed 104,000 loaves, or 1700 breads per minute.

There were:

- 600,000 men
- 600,000 women
- 1,000,000 children
- + Other matzons.

A total of about 2,500,000 people

Length of line:
Eg 20 people in parallel at 2 m intervals. - The length of the column will be about 250 km.

After death, man gets into the Promised Land or the Dead Sea

the Promised COUNTRY

No God is distant because He Himself bore Moses

Here Moses died. God himself has buried him. The funeral spot is not known!

When Israel went over Jordan, the stream flowed in the upper course and the river flowed into the Dead Sea, where it dried. The people went dry over. Then there was the flood time and plenty of water in the stream

A total of 70 people moved to Egypt

Before the departure came the invitation of God:

- Take away sin

An unimaginably large move:

2.5 million people go to the dry desert wilderness. They are on their way for 40 years.

- There is no food or drink there!

In Meribah of Cage, Moses struck the rock with his rod, even though God commanded him to speak to the rock.

Spies are sent to the Promised Land. It was not God's mind. This was followed by major problems: - Almost 40 years of wandering in the wilderness

In this area they rotated for tens of years

Death of the Dead Sea as well

The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah is likely to have occurred in about 2040 after the birth of Adam in connection with Araba's tomgl home

The longest way would be to travel a few weeks. The people, however, weakened God and Moose. That's why the journey lasted for 40 years. It was only 2.5 million of them who came to Perissa, two of the faithful, Joshua and Kaaleb.

This is all an exemplary and a warning to us who have come to the end of the World Time!

Their problems are pride. They were not humble so that they would have done according to His instructions. With obedience, they would quickly reach the Promised Land. - However, spending time in the wilderness came to them!
